The "Strong Workforce Faculty Institute" is a professional development (PD) framework for community college faculty members

... and includes the following concepts:

1. Compensation
2. Project-based learning
3. Guided reflection
4. Data and research
5. Cohort model

v1.0

STRONG WORKFORCE FACULTY INSTITUTE:
RETHINKING THE STUDENT EXPERIENCE FOR RETENTION AND SUCCESS

Data Track	Course-level Enrollment, Retention & Completion Data
Data Source	Institutional Research
Trainers & Facilitators	Deans & IR
Action Plan Goal	Incorporate Inclusive Teaching in the Classroom
Participants	Cohort 1 (Spring 2020)

v2.0

STRONG WORKFORCE FACULTY INSTITUTE:
RETHINKING THE STUDENT EXPERIENCE FOR RETENTION AND SUCCESS

Data Track	Course-level Enrollment, Retention & Completion Data	Labor Market Information & Student Employment Data
Data Source(s)	Institutional Research	COE & LaunchBoard
Trainers & Facilitators	Deans, IR & Data Coaches (Cohort 1)	COE Team
Action Plan Goal	Incorporate Inclusive Teaching in (Online) Classes	Use LMI to Guide Students in Career & Course Planning
Participants	Cohort 1 (Spring 2020) Cohort 2 (Summer 2021)	All Interested Faculty and Counselors (Spring 2021)

Tentative Timeline (Dependent on Approval)

Dates	Activities
Oct–Mar 2020	Discuss and plan Faculty Institute 2.0, which now has an LMI and Student Employment Data track
Apr 2021	First cohort for LMI and Student Employment Data track begins
Apr–Jun 2021	Faculty work collaboratively with cohort to complete the online form: • Specific sections due monthly • Monthly meetings will be held
Jul 2021	Second cohort for Course-level Enrollment, Retention & Completion Data track begins