Inclusive Teaching for Equitable Learning

As educators, we can work to develop a deeper understanding of implicit bias, microaggressions, stereotype threat and imposter phenomenon in an effort to continuously improve our ability to create the inclusive and equitable learning environments that ensure every student has the opportunities necessary to succeed.

In this microcredential, faculty learn teaching practices for developing students' sense of belonging, ensuring course materials are accessible, developing appreciation for diverse viewpoints, understanding how diversity aids in innovation, and setting expectations for productive dialogue.

Microcredential Course Modules:

INCLUSIVE TEACHING FOR EQUITABLE LEARNING (ITEL)

- Sponsored by the Regional Consortium
- 8-week course (06/20 - 8/11)
- Approx. 3 hours per week

UPDATE!

COE-SUGGESTED TIMELINE FOR REGIONAL INSTITUTES & RESEARCH FUNDS*

*contingent on availability of SWP regional funds

EMAIL SUBJECT LINE: REGIONAL CTE/CE RESEARCH EXPERT MOU

- Sent May 9, 2023
- Edits to MOU due May 31, 2023
- Please review the scope of work and signature page

SCOPE OF WORK

Through the COE, which is hosted at MiraCosta College, the Regional Consortium will provide the Recipient with the following temporary CTE/CE research support:

1. Provide access to a CTE/CE Research Expert for the duration of the MOU
2. Oversee the onboarding and training of Research Expert in topics outside of Recipient's programs, processes, policies, and procedures
3. Provide necessary work equipment (laptop, monitor, etc.)
4. Manage HR-related needs (performance evaluation, time off, benefits, etc.)
5. Help reach a consensus between the Recipient's CTE/CE and institutional research offices and make a final determination in the event that the two offices are unable to reach a consensus regarding the Research Expert's responsibilities, projects, and tasks
