ONLINE FORM

Learn by Doing: Labor Market Information (LMI) Exercises

This online form is a resource for participants of the Strong Workforce Faculty Institute—a professional learning opportunity for faculty in the San Diego and Imperial Counties Community Colleges.

This form includes prompts to help participants gain a better understanding of labor market information by practicing LMI exercises. This online form will be used for training and discussion purposes during guided reflection sessions.

Guided reflection sessions are held on Thursdays from 2:00 p.m. to 3:30 p.m. on the following dates:

Date	Topic
May 6, 2021	Reviewing Labor Market Information
May 27, 2021	Applying LMI to Your Day-to-Day Work
June 17, 2021	Using LMI to Connect with Students and Employers

Section I: Reviewing Labor Market Information

This section reviews the information presented on Monday, May 3, 2021 titled, "Introduction to Labor Market Information." Answer the following prompts with the instructions provided. Provide your responses in the blue boxes.

Scenario 1: You have been asked to research if there is a labor market need for a new training program. In this scenario, your stakeholders are interested in creating a training program for the occupation: Property, Real Estate, and Community Association Managers.

1. Go to myworkforceconnection.org/labor-market-information/labor-market-briefs and click on Business & Entrepreneurship, which will lead to a drop-down menu. Click on Property, Real Estate, and Community Association Managers and a new tab will open in your browser. Download the labor market brief.
2. Skip the Summary section for now and scroll down to the Introduction section on the following page.
3. What is the Standard Occupational Classification (SOC) code for Property, Real Estate, and Community Association Managers?
